Touchdown Romp
 SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Joe Kuharich, coach of the University of San Francisco, after watching a 90-minute scrimmage, wondered whether he has a potent offense or a weak defense. A total of 24 touchdowns were scored. Halfback Joe Scudero scored five, the longest a 70-yard run.

Toughest Session
 IOWA CITY, Ia. (UP)—Coach Leonard Raffensperger today sent the University of Iowa football squad into its toughest scrimmage of the pre-game training period. Fullback Don Riley, a letterman from Chicago, was pulled from the lineup when he twisted an ankle, but trainers said his injury was not serious.

SHAH'S BRIDE-TO-BE? Tehran newspapers said Saraya Esfandiara, 19, right, will become bride of Shah Reza Pahlavi of Iran. She is shown arriving at Ciampino Airport, Rome, accompanied by the Shah's eldest sister, Princess Pahlavi Chams, and her husband. The Shah divorced Empress Fawzia, sister of Egypt's King Farouk, two years ago. AP Wirephoto.

Looking — and — Listening

By THOMAS D. COOLICAN
FANNY BRICE will return to N.B.C. at 8:30 tonight (WSYR) in her original role of radio's most aggravating imp, Baby Snooks. It marks the start of the show's 13th season on the air.

Also returning are Hanley Stafford as Snooks' explosive and put-upon Daddy, and Arlene Harris as Mummy.

WHEN HAS TWO shows premiering tonight.

They are the Family Playhouse, a one-hour dramatic show, at 8 o'clock, and the Vaughn Monroe Show at 9.

A bi-weekly airer, the initial presentation on the Playhouse will star Gertrude Lawrence in S. N. Behrman's comedy, "Biography."

Monroe will head-up a half-hour musical revue featuring vocalist Shayne Cogan, comedienne Ada Lynne, novelty singer Ziggy Talent, the Moon Men and the Moon Maids.

CBS HAS TERMINATED its deal with Lum and Abner and has made a settlement with the rural comedy team for the remaining four years of the six-year contract. Lack of sponsor interest was given as the reason.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey will be seen on WSYR-TV at 6:50 tonight and heard on WAGE at 8:30.

N.B.C.'S HOUR, a half Big Broadcast, with Tallulah Bankhead as fence, will feature a short dramatization of a new movie and a similar excerpt from a current Broadway show with each program. The show starts Nov. 5.

Ginger Rogers will star as a Union Army nurse who risks her life as a spy behind Confederate lines in "Emma" on the Cavalcade of America over WSYR tonight.

GENE FOWLER may soon be on N.B.C. with his own show, titled "Special Edition."

Margaret Lambert and Trude Marshall will co-star in "Lucy and the Stranger," a gay fantasy about a little boy who wants to be a groupie on Fireside Theater over WSYR-TV at 9 tonight.

DICK GROSSMAN will present

Lawrence J. Skiddy, Herald-Journal sports editor, with the Barber-Poll Award, a statuette fashioned like a miniature barber pole with a gold colored football perched on the top, at 7:30 tonight on WHEN-TV Coaches' Corner. Skiddy was named among the first group of professional sports writers to receive the award.

Bing Crosby and Dinah Shore are due to guest on the Bob Hope radio show over WSYR at 9 tonight.

HOPE IS HEADING an outstanding array of talent on an extended tour of the Pacific area, including Korea and Japan, to entertain troops there. The cast includes Jane Russell, Marilyn Maxwell, Gloria Wakeley, Les Brown and his orchestra, Hy Averbach and "The High Hatters" dancing group.

TEST RADAR BUOYS
 CLEVELAND (AP)—The Coast Guard said today it would install experimental radar buoys on the Great Lakes as part of a test program. The buoys have pyramid-shaped steel pockets designed to reflect radar signals from ships.

Installation will be made during the next few weeks so that the effect of ice conditions on the buoys may be studied.
