

Tele-Vues by TERRY VERNON

Don Ameche has closed his "Holiday Hotel" for a holiday and opens up a summer theatre on KECA (7) at 9 p. m. He is in search of peace and quiet in the country and gets more than he bargained for, but little peace and quiet.

Betty Brewer will be with him again plus a couple of rustic characters to add the comedy to the show. Set in scenes both backstage and on stage, Ameche's new show highlights its musical comedy humor with songs by Betty, comedienne Dorothy Greener, the Charles Tate dancers and the Myer Rapport Chorus.

Incidentally, Ameche plans another new show this fall co-starring singer Frances Langford.

SHANNON VARIETIES — Another new show tonight is "Bob Shannon's Varieties" sponsored by 1300 independent druggists comprising the Southern California Pharmaceutical Assn., and that is a lot of bosses. It'll have Shannon showcasing amateur talent in a backstage atmosphere. Same type of show that N.T.G. made popular. Winners will be chosen by the viewers who will vote in any drugstore belonging to the sponsor group. Show is on KTVV

Searches for Quiet

(11) at 9 p. m., sounds like N.T.G. on KTVV and stars Bob Shannon, ex-KFI. Replaces Pantomime Quiz.

NEW MYSTERY—"Assignment: Man Hunt" is a series of complete mystery stories debuting on KNBH (4) at 9:30 p. m. Tonight it deals with a suspected murderer who believes, wrongly, that a young girl, his neighbor, knows he is guilty of the crime. He threatens to kill her.

EYE-CLOSER — A socially prominent but broke jewel collector who is about to sell his last stone is threatened with death if he goes through with the deal. He determines to sell it anyway and Martin Kane, Private Eye, takes the case. This is the closing show for The Eye, as Martin Kane goes on vacation from KNBH (4) at 8:30 p. m.

GANGSTER AND GRACIE — "Silky" Thompson, public enemy, draws his gun and demands that Gracie Allen give him a petition that seeks to oust him from the neighborhood. This is an error of judgment on his part, for Gracie is somebody's fool. Fact is, Silky loses the battle to Gracie, she keeps the petition and he is glad to get away from KTVV (2) at 8 p. m.

BUCKAROO—A romantic story of a champion bronco-buster who rides for a fall when he tries to tame the heart of the girl he loves, will be told on "Armstrong's Circle Theatre" over KNBH (4) at 9 p. m.

COIN TROUBLE—Andy Brown finds a nickel dated 1877 and learns from a coin dealer that it is worth $250. The Kingfish intercepts the letter, poses as a doctor who wishes to examine Andy, rifles his pants, steals the nickel and departs. Andy finds out about it, corners the Kingfish only to find the nickel is missing and they both set out to track it down. "Amos 'n' Andy," KTVV (2) at 8:30 p. m.

COMEDY-DRAMA — "Party Line" is the title of the play on "Royal Playhouse" that tells of two hypochondriacal lovers who hold pulses instead of hands but whose eventual marriage is crowned with an extremely healthy baby on KECA (7) at 8 p. m.

MOTHER FOUND—The mother of the baby that was left on the doorstep of The Ruggles home is found during the episode on KECA (7) at 7 p. m. Charlie decides to help the mother keep the baby and this leads to complications in the Ruggles manner and manor.

SPINNING THE DIAL—While we ordinarily don't deal in the community's night life we thought this was too good to pass up. Hear tell that Gary Cooper, Gig Young, Phil Harris, Jack Warner and Hal Roach are all going fishing tomorrow near Catalina and will start their trip as guests of Dennis Moore, manager of the Wilton Hotel, and will dine at the Skyroom to taste the cooking of Ernie "TV" Glaser. . . MR. MOTO and BROTHER FRANK JARES will meet ERNIE and EMIL DUSEK at the Auditorium tonight with KTLA (5) bringing the action at 8:30 p. m. with DICK LANE at the mike. . . JOE VENUS, former champ of the U. S. Navy, will try to "Beat the Champ" following the regular matches with $1300 in the jackpot. . . PAUL WHITE-MAN folds for the summer and has as his guest on KECA (7) at 8:30 p. m. JANIS PAIGE. His summer replacement will be EARL WRIGHTSON, baritone, who recently dropped his CBS "At Home" show. . . JOE GRAYDON presents 12-year-old drummer boy, BARRY MCCORMACK, on his 7 p. m. show over KLAC (13). . . FLORENCE ASHLEY, handwriting expert, is the guest with JEANNE GRAY on KTVV (2) at 3 p. m. . .
