

Tele-Vues by TERRY VERNON

Have some changes in program times for you today so if you are a supporter of Hawthorne, he's "Here Tonight" on KTSL (2) at 10 p. m., in a shift from his former Monday time slot.

Casey, Crime Photographer, will be snapping his shutter on channel 2 at 10:30 p. m., in a shift from Friday.

HOUR OF FUN—KTSL (2) has a jackpot hour for TV viewers who like good clean comedy in situation style. At 8 p. m., it is George Burns and Gracie Allen and at 8:30 p. m., Amos 'n' Andy.

Gracie goes on a vegetarian diet and nearly starves George to death, and this spreads to Blanche Morton who tries to feed her husband Harry the same rabbit food diet. Gracie gets the idea from a book that says people should eat like animals as "you never see a sick beaver," but Gracie isn't sure she wants to look like a beaver. Fred Clark the Bea Benadaret are the Mortons.

KINGFISH IN DITHER—Harlem is thrown into a dither by the Kingfish, but he doesn't know why. Seems he rents the basement of the Mystic Knights of the Sea lodge hall to three mysterious printers. Andy sneaks down into the basement to print a calling card to go with a box of candy for his girl friend, gets his sleeve caught in the hand press and it comes out with a picture of Andrew Jackson on it. He departs with a box of brand new twenty dollar bills instead of his candy and when his girl spreads the money around, things begin to happen.

This double-feature of comedy is about the best TV fare of its kind now available, and well worth spending a comfortable hour watching.

FOOD ADVENTURE—A middle-aged man's quest for good food leads him to the brink of a romantic adventure in the drama "Table for Two" on Armstrong's Circle Theatre over KNBH (4) at 9 p. m. Henry Daniell is starred as the gourmet who meets an attractive woman who shares his interest in fine food.

INVESTIGATOR—"The Pipes Are Calling" is the story of an insurance investigator whose romantic miscalculations prove his downfall on "Assignment: Man Hunt" over KNBH (4) at 9:30 p. m. He turns down a bribe offered by a night club owner but isn't astute enough to avoid falling for the club's songbird, who ain't no lady.

FARMER'S HIRED GIRL—This is a switch, the farmer has a daughter and a hired girl but no traveling salesman on "Royal Playhouse" at 8 p. m., on KECA (7). His daughter is devoted to the hired girl and calls her "Mommy" and the farmer decides he cares not at all for the situation... at first.

FAST BUCKS—A bartender and his wife decide to make a few extra dollars in a simple little swindle scheme that involves a supposedly rare dog. "Racket Squad" will show you how easy it is to fleece the gullible when it tells the story on KTSL (2) at 9:30 p. m.

MUSIC ON BEACH—Freddy Martin and his orchestra take to the beach when they play a series of musical salutes to summertime on KNBH (4) at 8:30 p. m. Sue Bennett is the guest vocalist and also heard are Merv Griffin and the Martin Men.

ALL-AMERICANS—Two great football players, both All-Americans, come face to face when Tom Harmon greets Bill McColl of Stanford on his show over KTSL (2) at 6:30 p. m. McColl will sit in with Rube Samuelson and Vicki Draves to answer sports queries tossed by Tom.

SPINNING THE DIAL—Caterpillars are almost too much for DON AMECHE on his "Musical Playhouse" over KECA (7) at 9 p. m., and he packs his bags ready to depart. OXNARD talent is seen on the BOB SHANNON Varieties over KTTV (11) at 9 p. m., featuring pantomimist LYMONA LEE CASTLEBERRY, (who had best change names; that one won't fit on a theatre marquee), MARVIN CESSNA, baritone, and drummer FRED KISHON. LINA ROMAY will sing on the "Goodyear Summer-time Revue" over KECA (7) at 8:30 p. m. along with EARL WRIGHTSON and MAUREEN CANNON. CONFUSION reigns over the announcement on "Meet the Press" on Sundays to "see our second show." Fact is, we West Coasters get the single show and not the second one. Latter is shown in New York and on the cable only, as the summer replacement for MILTON BERLE. So don't look for "Meet the Press" more than once a week.

RANGER, the horse owned by "WALKIN' CHARLEY ALDRIDGE" of KTTV, can do 47 different tricks. He counts up to 100, can untie knotted ropes, lie down and cover himself with a blanket, and do "yes" or "no" with a nod of his head. The horse and his master will be in Long Beach on Friday, August 24, to put on their full one-and-a-half hour TV show by remote control at 5 p. m. Incidentally, ALDRIDGE holds some sort of record... He did 153 benefit (non-pay) performances in one month. During his personal appearances with RANGER, he takes all the kids for a ride on the horse and in one day put over 2000 kiddies on his saddle. His TV show down here will feature an amateur talent contest for youngsters 18-years of age and UNDER. Kids up to 12 years will compete against each other, and those from 12 to 18 will compete in a second group.
