WOMEN IN SPORTS

By PEG CRAM

MRS. ROBERT COSGROVE, chairman of the women golfers at the Bellevue Club, and her executive committee are planning an eventful year on the Heights course.

Annual tea-off dinner is scheduled for April 30, with all women members of the club invited. New members are urged to be present to get acquainted. First sweepstakes will start May 2. "Early birds" have been busy on the course. Mary Hunt braved high winds to play nine holes; Mrs. Jim Gridley, who studied golf literature and indoor putting during the winter, is now practicing on the course, driving, chipping and putting.

Mrs. Francis Kinney is chairman of the annual May Day breakfast scheduled for May 27. Every Bellevue woman member is urged to be present at a dinnery take a guest.

THE BATTLE between the Kellys and Slades on the Heights

Jack Laken is Back 'on Carpet'

DETROIT (INS) — Michigan Boxing Commissioner Floyd Stevens has rebuked two promoters for allegedly using Percy Jones Army Hospital at Battle Creek, Mich., to publicize their fight bouts.

Jack Laken and Louis Newman were reprimanded after Col. Fred H. Murrey, commanding officer, complained they were using the hospital's name in connection with unauthorized "charity" bouts.

Stevens also forbade sanction of a proposed fight between Jimmy Carter, lightweight champion, and Harold "Baby Face" Jones, who is managed by Laken.

New Managers

DENVER (AP) — The turnover in managers in the Class A Western League was so extensive since last season that only two repeaters are back—George Kissel with the pennant-winning Omaha Cardinals and Andy Cohen of the runner-up Denver Bears. The league's new skipper is Colorado Springs' Sky Sox—Don Gutierrez. Pueblo Dodgers — Bill McCahan; Des Moines Athletics — Lester Bell; Lincoln City Sox — Ray Mueller and Wichita Indians — Ralph Winegarner.

Iowa Girl Holds Cage Point Mark

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Take it from a fellow who makes it his business to find out, the girls are sleuthing the basketball limelight away from the stronger sex. Norma Schoutte, 6-ft., 4-inch high school senior, scored 111 points January 28 in leading Menomonee, Iowa to a 132-12 win over Harpers Ferry.

In the books of statisticians Steve Seman of Johnston, who craves all previous highs, including those set by boys. For the past decade Seman, a railroad worker, has been scoring hundreds of newspapers daily to pick out scholastic basketball records.

Norma Schoutte scored 54 field goals and three fouls in setting her record. Two years ago, Steve reports, Norma Overcash, a 6-ft., 7-inch girl from Lamonia, High School in North Carolina, tallied 102 points as her team trounced Spencer High 107-35. However, to add to Miss Schoutte's fame, she already has scored 3,722 points in four years of competition.

In the boys corner Steve reports that Joe Wilmore is tops with 104 points scored last March for Union Dodge, Iowa. Junior high in West Frankfort, Ill. Walter Pierskall of Chicago Tilden Tech holds the senior high record with 91 points as his team beat Dunbar, 122-23.
