Those hulks from Japan, the Sumo wrestlers, will give a four man demonstration of the ancient Japanese grappling art. A three-man elimination tournament is billed for the Auditorium tonight between Fujitayama, Yaki-tayama and Onoumi with the winner meeting the Sumo champion, Maedayama. (Poor Dick Lane, with those names.)

Prior to the actual grappling there'll be the ancient Japanese ceremonials including prayers to the sumo gods.

American style, you'll find Wild Red Berry and Andre Drapp, Leo Garibaldi and The Champ, Hans Schnabel and Ace Freeman.

All of this colorful wrestling is on KTLA (5) at 8:30 p. m. but if you really want the color and excitement, get yourself down to the Auditorium tonight.

ARMY LIFE TENSIONS—"In a Military Manner" is the drama, first in a series, to be presented on "Starlight Theater" over KTSL (2) at 8 p. m. Alfred Ryder and John Forsythe are starred as two tough GIs whose bitter rivalry ends in a near-murder and an unexpected act of mercy.

DOG COMPETITION—When the twins try to enter their hybrid dog Rover in an exclusive dog show, they find out that the beast just isn't good enough. So Charles Ruggles decides to hold a dog show of his own and invites about 20 youngsters and their pooches. Sounds like a howling good time on KECA (7) at 7 p. m.

SAPPHIRE FLEES—Once again Sapphire leaves The Kingfish "for good" and goes home to Brooklyn. Andy and The Kingfish set out to woo her back but find the mother-in-law's home deserted except for a strange man who seems to be perfectly at home. This leads the two wife hunters into the delusion that the man is a friend and has done away with Sapphire. Lightnin' helps out by finding some burned clothes in the backyard and this leads to a new kind of private eye trouble. All this on KTSL (2) at 8:30 p. m.

BACK AGAIN—"Miggles" is back on TV after having been seen two or three times... this time on "Royal Playhouse" over KECA (7) at 8 p. m. Five passengers on a stagecoach are caught in a cloudburst and seek shelter in the home of "Miggles." It has a heartwarming story that is worth seeing, if you missed it before.

PAWNBROKER VICTIM—"The Diamond That Wasn't" is the tale on Racket Squad over KTSL (2) at 9:30 p. m. as Reed Hadley unmasks another swindle commonly used by crooks. Others in the cast are Rochelle Hudson, Johnny Downs, Howland Chamberlin and Morgan Farley.

HOT RODS AND KIDS—Clay Robbins and Allen Heath, race drivers, will discuss hot rods and teenagers with Gordon Browning, officer in the Traffic Education Unit of the Los Angeles Police Department on "Meet Your Children" over KECA (7) at 2:30 p. m.

BROADWAY INGENUE—Marilyn Day will be guest vocalist in the "Goodyear Summertime Revue" over KECA (7) at 8:30 p. m. She'll be seen with Earl Wrightson and Maureen Cannon, regular stars of the show.

ALONG THE COAST—An automobile trip down the coast to LaJolla and first TV films of the new Marine Aquarium at the Scripps Institute of Oceanography will highlight "The Open Road" on KTTV (11) at 7:30 p. m.

SPINNING THE DIAL—While JOE GRAYDON is on vacation from his KLAC (13) show at 7 p. m. he'll have CAROL RICHARDS doing his chores tonight. ROSEMARY BUCOLLA, singer; OTTO FOORMAN, accordionist; DALE CHAMBERS, ballet; and ALLAN HACKETT, tap dancer, will be spotlighted on BOB SHANNON'S show over KTTV (11) at 9 p. m. BILL GWIN has $180 in the jackpot for the "What's the Name of That Song" contest on KTSL (2) at 9 p. m. DON AMECHE causes William Shakespeare to turn over in his grave when he attempts to play Hamlet on his KECA (7) "Musical Playhouse" at 9 p. m. LUPITA TOVAR, Mexican actress, consults CARROLL RIGHTER on KTTV (11) at 3:45 p. m. BEN ALEXANDER has $125 for his "Watch and Win" jackpot on KTSL (2) at 7 p. m. BOB PARIS, dramatic coach, is interviewed by JEANNE GRAY on her KTSL (2) show at 3 p. m. ROBERT CLARK, movie actor, and CAPTAIN BLAINE STEEN of the L. A. Police Bunco Squad, will visit with BILLIE BURKE on KTTV (11) at 4 p. m. HOW THE OTHER HALF LIVES might well be the title of the KNBH show set for Sunday when the station sends a remote unit to do a telecast from the exclusive Bel Air district. You'll get a camera eye view of luxurious living, plus a champion woman swimmer doing some splashing around in a private pool. CHARLIE WILD gets a new sponsor when his show shifts from former KTSL spot to KECA on Sept. 26. New sponsor is a wine concern and we wonder if it'll be as wild as Charlie. FRANCES LANGFORD and DON AMECHE team in a new show to open Sept. 24 on KECA. BILLY GRAHAM brings his evangelistic films to TV starting on Sept. 30. MYSTERY THEATER will have a new twist in October. It has been purchased by Sterling Drug, Inc., for four products and it'll be a mystery as to which will get the commercial spots and we can only pray they'll not all come at once.

May Named to GOP Committee

Election of F. Donald May, 171 Claremont Ave., as a member of the 18th District Republican Central Committee, was announced yesterday by Willis W. Bradley, committee chairman. May, Belmont Shore business-man, was runner-up in the recent city council election in the first district. "The election of such young and active men as Don May adds measurably to the strength of the Republican Central Committee and augments the party's prospects for success in 1952," Bradley said.

Former Resident Dies in Ontario

Marie Closser Thompson, former Long Beach resident for more than 20 years, died Monday in Ontario. She moved from Long Beach to Ontario about four years ago. She is survived by husband Lee W. Thompson of Ontario who conducted a hospital equipment rental business here and a sister, Mrs. Charles Strome of Indiana.
